Kanei Leads Allen Among Local Residents

Poll

Area Teens, Students, More Liberal than State, Skelley Says

Please see Poll, page 2A

Skelley said it other counties

Kanei said, "We need to do more

The performance for libraries

The poll also surveyed the high school students, who tended to vote for Kanei. Kanei, who has received support from the teachers' union and other labor groups, has interviewed with the Independent. Skelley, who has been endorsed by several local organizations, including the National Education Association and the League of Women Voters, has been endorsed by the teachers' union and other organizations. The poll also asked about the role of education in the presidential race, with Kanei receiving more support from the teachers' union and Skelley receiving more support from the local business community. The poll also asked about the role of education in the presidential race, with Kanei receiving more support from the teachers' union and Skelley receiving more support from the local business community. The poll also asked about the role of education in the presidential race, with Kanei receiving more support from the teachers' union and Skelley receiving more support from the local business community. The poll also asked about the role of education in the presidential race, with Kanei receiving more support from the teachers' union and Skelley receiving more support from the local business community.

By Kelly Kerker

Democratic candidate for one of the District 3 Senate in the U.S. Senate, Kerker, said the issue of education is a major concern in the state. "The education issue is a major concern in the state," Kerker said. "It's not just about the teachers, it's about the students too. The education system is broken, and we need to fix it."